Breakfast at the hotel. Meet your personal English speaking guide in the city center for a walking tour of Florence; you can choose to visit the Uffizi Gallery Museum, or the Accademia Gallery Museum, together with the imposing Duomo . The Uffizi Gallery houses a superb collection of priceless art, originating in great part from the Medici family collection, enriched over the centuries by endowments, exchanges and donations, among which an important group of religious works stands out, resulting from the suppression of the monasteries and convents between the XVIII and XIX centuries. Here, you will find the richest collection in the world of works of the Tuscan school, Florentine in particular, among which: Cimabue, Michelangelo, Giotto, Leonardo da Vinci and Raffaello. Without parallel is the collection of works by Sandro Botticelli. The Accademia Gallery houses some of the most important masterpieces of Michelangelo in Florence: the original David. Day 9 - Florence/Siena / San Gimignano with lunch Breakfast at the hotel. Meet the driver at the hotel and transfer to Siena. You will meet your private English speaking guide in the center of Siena, a city that dates back to the Etruscan period. While walking along the streets you will reach the Duomo (or Cattedrale di Santa Maria Assunta), a classic example of Romanesque-Gothic architecture, the Battistero di San Giovanni, and the historic Piazza del Campo with its unusual seashell form. It is here that the famous Palio di Siena takes place every year from 2 July to 16 August. After your tour you will be welcomed into one of the best known restaurants in the area. Within this tavern, with its evocative architecture, you will be able to taste some delicious Tuscan dishes: from the flavors of wild boar ravioli to potato gnocchetti prepared in yellow squash sauce to the classic "ribollita" (Tuscan soup) and their exquisite Florentine steak, all accompanied with the best local wines.

After this wonderful lunch, your driver will escort you to the charming village of San Gimignano where you will be able to walk through a Medieval town, which has been declared a World Heritage Site. The main attraction of San Gimignano are the 16 Medieval Towers that still stand today. The oldest is the Torre Rognosa, 51 meters high, while the tallest is the Torre del Podestà, also known as the Torre Grossa (Big Tower), standing 54 meters. In AD 1255 a law was passed that prohibited the building of any tower to supercede the height of the Torre Rognosa (which was the tallest at that time), while the two most important families - Ardinghelli and Salvucci - in order to demonstrate their power, had two towers built just 50 cm under the 54 meter limit. Overnight in Florence, Hotel Monnalisa 4*.
