

23 Days the best of Italy- BTCDFE

Day 1 - Venice/ Venice Airport

Upon arrival at Venice airport meet your personal English speaking driver just outside the airport who will escort you to your private taxi boat, for a transfer to the hotel in Venice: Hotel Ca de conti 4****. Ca' dei Conti, is in the heart of Venice, just a stroll from St. Mark's Square, and offers you that once in a lifetime experience of staying in an age-old Venetian residence. Each detail was attentively studied to bring to life an harmonious atmosphere, where it is a pleasure to take some time out to relax. The typically Venetian atmosphere creates a perfect setting between the hotel and the city. Late afternoon you will enjoy a guided tour and you will discover a different Venice, far from the crowd. You'll learn about the mysteries and the dark stories of this incredible city. Tour will start at Saint Mark's square, with the Clock's tower ( the two clock makers were blinded because the Government didn't want they could create another one) and looking for the spot for capital executions. You will take then the Gondola for a fantastic tour in the venetian canals, with other incredible stories and you will end your day at Rialto's Bridge in a nice local typical restaurant for a delicious dinner. Overnight at the hotel Ca' dei Conti.

Day 2 - Venice Half day walking tour of Venice highlights and cicchetti tasting

You will meet your English speaking guide directly at the lobby of your hotel. This is the perfect tour for those who want to know the history of Venice starting from the most important site of the city: Saint Mark's Square. Entering in San Marco square by the two monumental columns in front of the lagoon (the so-called "water square"), near the Bridge of Sighs, suddenly we can admire the history of the Republic of Venice displayed: we can visit the Doge's Palace, seat of government and center of political and administrative life of the city, the Basilica, with its golden mosaics and precious marbles, the Clock Tower and the Bell Tower. The walk then leads to the Grand Canal and to the famous Rialto Bridge through beautiful and hidden corners. After a 3 hours historic guided tours, your guide will bring you to discover the "Enogastronomic" Venice, passing by the most hidden areas and canals of the lagoon city. Throughout the tour you will make some appetizing stops, enabling you to sample "i cicchetti" (classic Venetian appetizers) made with the best ingredients found in the city accompanied by well-known wines ; a gastronomic and historical tour of this wonderful ancient city on the lagoon perfect for those who want their journey to be a unique, unforgettable experience. Rest of the day at your leisure. Dinner free, overnight in Venice at hotel Ca' dei Conti.

Day 3 - Venice/ Bellagio Lake Como

After your breakfast and check-out, you will meet your personal driver and private water taxi for a transfer to Piazzale Roma and departure, by private car, to Bellagio. Check in at your Hotel Bellagio 3**** and rest of the day at your leisure to stroll around and start to appreciate this beautiful lake resort. Overnight at Hotel Bellagio The rooms in the Bellagio hotel provide romantic views over the downtown rooftops and picturesque streets. Some of the rooms also offer a splendid view over Lake Como.

Day 4 – Bellagio Boat tour

After breakfast you will enjoy a beautiful private boat ride and while sailing on the lake you will admire the several beautiful villas and natural landscapes that only Lake Como can offer, such as Villa Balbianello and Villa Melzi. Villa Balbianello is a beautiful 16th century residence that is under the ownership of the FAI (the Italian Foundation for the Environment) since 1988. This villa has been chosen also for some scenes included in the 17th movie of the 007 James Bond saga: 'Casinò Royal' of 2006 by Martin Campbell. Villa Melzi called Villa Gallarati Scotti, was formerly of the Melzi Family. This building with neoclassical features was built between 1810 and 1815 and designed by G. Albertolli. The extensive park, which runs down to the edge of the lake, surrounds the villa and among the trees, there are Egyptian, Etruscan- Roman, Renaissance and neoclassical Sculptures. Rest of the day at your leisure Overnight in Bellagio.

Day 5 - Bellagio/Milan/Cinque Terre

After breakfast and check out you will leave Bellagio for direct transfer to Milan where you will meet your private guide for a 3 hours tour of this city, including the famous dome of Milan and the must-see spots of the city , Teatro alla Scala (from outside) .Milan has always been a rich and important city. It offers variety of churches, buildings and monuments as well as many historic palazzos like the Royal Palace situated in the south side of Piazza Duomo. Eventual visit of the Last Supper can be included on request. The large fresco ( 460 x 880 cm ) was painted by Leonardo between 1495 and 1497. Technique used is a mixed technique on the wall . Example of sacred art among the most famous of all time.The Last Supper decorates one wall of the convent of Santa Maria delle Grazie in Milan . The fresco is the later affirmation of Christ " one of you will betray me " , and describes through gestures , expressions and postures of the bodies the different reactions to the words of the apostles of Jesus ; The apostles are asking incredulous , expressing dismay and astonishment , the meaning of his words , wonders who is the traitor ; reigns agitation, confusion , discussion . Your long day tour will end at Monterosso at Cinque Terre after your visit in Milan. Overnight at the Hotel Villa Adriana 3*** .

Day 6 - Discovering the Cinque Terre

After breakfast meet your personal English speaking guide at your hotel to start a full day guided visit to discover the beauties of this part of the region. The Ligurian Coast is a masterpiece of nature that offers its visitors unique and breathtaking vistas; here you will find five little “jewels” or hills - the Cinque Terre - the true “jewels” of the Mediterranean sitting along a rugged portion of coast on the Italian Riviera. On today’s tour you will be chauffeured in a luxury car by your personal driver to the idyllic village of Monterosso: the most populated of the five Cinque Terre villages, it is situated in the center of this small natural bay. Take time to explore, before continuing your journey to Vernazza, nestled in a breathtaking inlet whose shoreline features classic cultivated terraced grapevines. Next, perched atop a rock (or promontory) 90 meters high, you will visit the only hill of the Cinque Terre that is not directly adjacent to the sea: Corniglia. Here you will pause briefly to enjoy lunch on your own, and experience the incredible panoramic vistas beyond the area's stunning terraced vineyards. The tour continues after lunch on to Manarola: a region characterized by its colorful houses facing the sea, and its small intertwining streets connected by a network of stairways that lead to the little village. The last stop on your tour today will be Riomaggiore. This southern-most village contains a very high concentration of houses in a small area, a distinctive feature giving the impression of a "tree" with its buildings as the branches. Overnight at Villa Adriana.

Day 7 – Cinque Terre

Day free at your leisure to explore the surroundings and discover more about this beautiful land. Overnight at Villa Adriana.

Day 8 - Cinque Terre/ Pisa/Florence

After breakfast and check out of the hotel, on your way to Florence today you will stop in Pisa for an interesting visit of this lovely town. Here you will meet your personal English speaking guide: your tour will begin at the central Piazza dei Miracoli, famous for its Leaning Tower and the myriad of beautiful architectural structures that distinguish this city. Named after a Greek city (from where it's believed the first inhabitants originated) Pisa will be yours to explore alongside your personal guide. Thanks to its Tower, Pisa has become a symbol in Italy and around the world where it is often cited as one of the seven wonders of the medieval world; one that has fascinated film directors and location researchers alike. Skip the line tickets to visit the Leaning Tower are included in this visit. Before proceeding to next destination you will enjoy a nice meal at a local restaurant reserved for you to appreciate the Tuscan cuisine. You will then leave to Florence with your private minivan where you will get in about 1 hour. Free time to relax and rest of the day at your leisure. Overnight in Florence at Hotel degli Orafi 4****. Between Ponte Vecchio and the Uffizi Gallery, the hotel degli Orafi could hardly be more central offering a delightfully panoramic roof terrace, and an ornate, frescoed breakfast room with Arno views that runs the whole length of the building.

Day 9 – Florence Uffizi and Accademia Gallery

AM This is going to be a very interesting and cultural day!! Your English speaking guide will lead you to the famous Uffizi Gallery which houses a superb collection of priceless art, originating in great part from the Medici family collection, enriched over the centuries by endowments, exchanges and donations, among which an important group of religious works stands out, resulting from the suppression of the monasteries and convents between the XVIII and XIX centuries. Here, you will find the richest collection in the world of works of the Tuscan school, Florentine in particular, among which: Cimabue, Michelangelo, Giotto, Leonardo da Vinci and Raffaello. Without parallel is the collection of works by Sandro Botticelli. PM Free time for lunch at your choice before heading to another famous Gallery Museum: the Accademia so to admire the many masterpieces that this Gallery hosts: 'David' and 'Prigioni' sculptures by Michelangelo, just to name a couple. Your night will be delighted by a delicious dinner run by a very good restaurant considered one of the best in town, an informal setting complete with works by young artists who dress the graphics menu in collaboration with major contemporary art galleries in Florence.

Overnight at Hotel degli Orafi.

Day 10 - Florence /Siena /Cortona

On this day, after breakfast and check out of the hotel, we will drive southbound towards Siena, escorted by our private English speaking driver on a full day journey to discover the beauties of the Tuscan city of Siena. You will meet your personal English speaking guide in the city center of Siena and begin your tour. The history of this small and unique city will be expertly illustrated, allowing you to open your heart as if you were a true inhabitant of Siena. You will discover the Magnificent Piazza del Campo where , twice a year (2 July and 16 August) an event , that every citizen of Siena looks forward to , takes place : the Palio di Siena. You will learn about the history of the Contrade (ancient Sienese name for neighborhood) and visit the famous Duomo but also other monuments of the city. PM At the end of the visit you will have lunch in a nice and typical restaurant in the city centre with a stunning view over the city. Here you will be able to taste some delicious Tuscan dishes: from the flavors of wild boar ravioli to the classic "ribollita" (Tuscan soup) and their exquisite Florentine steak, all accompanied with the best local wines. Day 12 - AM - Half day guided visit in Cortona including a unique lunch in a typical restaurant / PM Pienza

A lovely mountaintop town straddling Tuscany and Umbria. Cortona is a very well preserved Etruscan town, which belonged to the “dodecapolis” of the 12 main Etruscan cities. Today, it’s possible to see the original city walls dating back to 5th century B.C. You can also visit a very interesting Etruscan Academy displaying bronzes, vases and other objects from the Etruscan era. You will have free time to explore Cortona’s main attractions, including churches, museums, and the shopping area of Via Nazionale. Then, we will head to Le Celle is referred to as "Santuario Le Celle" or "Convento delle Celle" (Convent of the cells). Outside the walls of Cortona, through the woods to an amazing complex of stark beige buildings spilling down the slopes of Monte Sant' Edigio. Saint Francis founded the monastery in the early 13th century, preaching here in 1211. Locals and pilgrims alike find great spiritual inspiration from visiting Saint Francis' spartan cell with its stone bed and wooden pillow. There is a church and a small store on the property. After the visit lunch is reserved for you in a unique restaurant in the hearth of Cortona, it is a cozy, family-run restaurant, you are guaranteed a warm welcome from owner Romano, a DOP cheese affineur and charcuterie expert as well as, and above all, a lover of Arretine cuisine, his wife Agostina who, true to local tradition, accurately prepares superb traditional dishes from the Cortonese and Tuscan cuisine, including soups, hand-made pasta, I.G.P. Chianina beef and traditional desserts, using impeccable seasonal ingredients. PM After the visit in Cortona and lunch transfer to the beautiful Pienza, here you will have free time approx. 2hours. Pienza has started as a Siennese citadel, called Corsignano, from what lasts only a piece of city walls, and a Romanesque church located 3km away. However, Pienza is completely Renaissance style, because has been built by order of the Pope Pio II – Enea Silvio Piccolomini – that decided to transform his home town in a beautiful place for him and his court to be protected and relaxed near the water risings of Valdorcia. Actually, this area is very special because stays near to three important lakes: Trasimeno (of Cortona), Chiusi and Montepulciano Lake; and also close to a great quality water source called Vivo – this the main source that supplies Siena nowadays. Pienza is also the capital city of the “Pecorino” – sheep cheese, and organizes every year, on the second Sunday of September, the “Fiera del Cacio” or the Festival of the local sheep cheese. The milk is particularly aromatic because the configuration of the clayey land where many aromatic herbs grow, and sheep all freely grazed, producing a perfumed milk and cheese. Pienza Pecorino cheese has the D.O.P. European label (which means a Protected Origin Denomination). Pienza Pecorino cheese and Brunello di Montalcino are undoubtedly a perfect match!!!! After the visit you private driver will escort you back to your Relais Il Falconiere.

Day 13 – Cortona/Civita di Bagnoregio/Rome

Breakfast and check out from your hotel to proceed then towards Civita di Bagnoregio accompanied by your private English speaking
