Activities: day & night game drives, bushwalks with the San and horse riding

Grasslands Safari lodge is located on a private conservancy on the western edge of the Kalahari Game Reserve, about 80 km northeast of Ghanzi. The owners offer warm hospitality and a genuine passion and knowledge of the area.

Grasslands Safari Lodge can accommodate up to sixteen guests in well-furnished chalets, each with en-suite bathrooms and ceiling fans. Each chalet has a running hot and cold water supply with laundry done at no extra charge. The main building has both outdoor and indoor dining areas, overlooking a large swimming pool.

Grasslands offer a wide variety of activities so guests can experience different facets of life in the Kalahari region. There is an incredible cultural experience, whereby you meet with the local Bushmen in the area, whose wealth of knowledge and humble characters are astounding. The Problem Predator Centre at Grasslands cares for a variety of wildlife whose existence is threatened by proximity to human development (villages and farms). This allows guests to observe different species (possibly including the endangered African wild dog) and learn about the threats and problems facing wildlife in Africa today as well as possibly playing a role in helping to secure the future of wildlife protection.

Horse riding in the surrounding Kalahari wilderness is available for both novices and more experienced riders. Generally rides last for one or two hours, but horse safaris for longer periods of time into the bush with a local bushman as a guide can be arranged directly with the lodge.

2 NIGHTS: ODDBALLS' ENCLAVE: Okavango delta

After breakfast at Grasslands Bushman Lodge, you will be transferred back to the airstrip where your pilot will greet you once again as you fly across the Central Kalahari into the Okavango Delta. A complete contrast of landscapes as you move from the semi-arid desert to the wetlands of the Delta. Your lodge guide will meet you at the airstrip and transfer you to Oddballs Enclave Camp. Your stay here includes the following:

Walking with your personal, professional guide
Mokoro Excursions
Optional visits to the local baYei village (your guide's home)

Includes: meals, drinks, activities, park fees & laundry
Excludes: premium imported wines, champagnes & spirits

Activities: mokoro (water level dependent), bushwalks and cultural village visit

Oddballs' Enclave is situated on the edge of Chief's Island, deep in the heart of the Okavango Delta and offers arguably the purest traditional Okavango Delta experience. Oddballs' Enclave caters to the active traveller and undoubtedly represents great value for money.

This small intimate hideaway with spectacular views over the floodplain can accommodate a maximum of ten guests in five Meru style tents with rustic en-suite bathrooms, each individually built on a wooden platform and shaded by reed shelters. The bar and lounge areas have comfortable seating and a raised viewing deck overlooks the sweep of the delta – the perfect place to watch the sun rise over the floodplain and view whatever wildlife may be visiting. Meals are simple yet wholesome, and are enjoyed in the main complex.

Oddballs' Enclave pays homage to a time when safaris were a real adventure. Activities are conducted by your own professional guide (a maximum of two guests per guide. The activities at Oddballs' Enclave usually start by mokoro (water level dependant), after which you will walk on some of the larger islands in the area. Walking is an integral and significant part of the experience at any time of year. The extent of the walks will depend on your tastes. Some guests elect to go out for the whole day with a packed picnic lunch. It is often said that the very best way to experience the wonders of the African bush is on foot and Oddballs' Enclave certainly lives up to that claim.

Subject to water levels, it is also possible to go camping however this needs to be booked in advance.
